WATCHING FOR A CHANCE

RUSSIANS MAY HIT HARD SOON.

Information Received Indicating the Strength of the Japanese. Port Arthur Not Yet Charged Upon—Reports.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 29.—According to information which has reached the war office here, Field Marshal Oyama's strength is much smaller than heretofore believed, tending to confirm the theory that a large force has been withdrawn to assist in storming Port Arthur. This information is to the effect that not much more than 150,000 men are now confronting Kuropatkin, but the Japanese lines are heavily fortified in order to check any aggressive movement which Kuropatkin might undertake long enough to enable the Japanese to hurry up reinforcements by rail from the peninsula. The present activity of the Japanese along the front, these reports indicate, are only feintings to convince Kuropatkin that the offensive is imminent. Should this important intelligence be absolutely confirmed it is possible the Russian commander in chief may himself attempt to strike a quick blow. Kuropatkin is now supposed to have nearly 300,000 men.

Mukden, Nov. 29.—No important change has taken place in the situation. Only occasional skirmishes have occurred along the right and center. The Japanese have been feeling out the Russian strength on the extreme left, resulting in four days' fighting with the Japanese eventually retiring.

Tokio, Nov. 29.—The Imperial headquarters to day summarized the Manchurian situation in the following statement:

On the evening of Nov. 27 the enemy made a dull bombardment against Santa Okunzu and the enemy's infantry from 6:30 attempted a night attack, which was repulsed at 8:30. During the attack the enemy's mortars in the neighborhood of Wuchialautzu bombarded Santokuunzu and Kanchiawotzu and their immediate vicinities, but did not injure it.

From sunset the 27th the enemy's mortars and field guns west of the railroad bombarded incessantly the neighborhood of Kuchiatzu. Simultaneously the enemy's infantry occupied a village northwest of Nankuanzu and fired in the direction of Stochisfu, which is north of Kuchiatzu. Firing quieted the evening of the same day at 8:30 and at 10:30 the enemy's infantry west of the railroad on the right bank of the Shakkhe river and northward of Shichinpu fired at us, but ceased firing at 11:30. There have been several skirmishes between scouting parties, but in other respects the situation is unchanged.

AT PORT ARTHUR.

Tokio, Nov. 29.—The Imperial headquarters to night summarized the Port Arthur as follows:

With regard to the enemy's forts at Sungshu mountain and eastward we have finally captured the crests, countercrests and their vicinities, but the time to charge has not yet come. At present we are destroying the casemates, and other caponiers. At present our force is holding its position and endeavoring to capture the whole fort.

WAR REPORTS.

Mukden, Nov. 29.—Japanese cavalrymen who have been captured by Russians declare General Kuropatkin is not dead.

There has been no important change in the situation. Small skirmishes are reported on the eastward, but there is no sign of definite Japanese advance. Recently Japanese have been using dogs as scouts, sending them out from trenches with long cords attached. It is almost impossible to detect these wary animals, which cunningly locate Russian positions and give warning of any movement against the Japanese. Some Russians have managed to strew neutral ground with poisoned pork, thus thinning the ranks of the dog scout detachment.

St. Petersburg, Uov. 29.—The following despatch, was received from Kuropatkin yesterday:

Engagement near Tsinkhetchen, near Da Pass, resumed to day, but ceased at 11 a. m. Have collected and hurled the Japanese dead. By midday we had found 230 bodies, all belonging to the seventh reserve regiment of the ninth reserve brigade. We took a large quantity of rifles, ammunition and entrenching tools. General Sakharoff wires to day that the night passed quietly.

Drest, France, Nov. 29.—The Russian torpedo boat destroyer Prozouilly has anchored in the roadstead here with a hole in the hull, caused by her anchor. She will enter the naval port to repair.

DEATHS.

Shenago, Pa., Nov. 29.—News reached here to day that Lorenzo M. Johnson, of Chicago and Winnetka, Ill., president of the Pittsburgh, Showmutt & Northern Railroad company and allied interests, and formerly general manager of the Mexican International railroad and other large interests of C. P. Huntington in Mexico, died suddenly at St. Marys, Pa., Monday evening.

DEFUNCT BANKS.

What Investigation Disclosed as to Two Recent Failures

O'Neill, Neb., Nov. 29.—Investigation by the state bank examiner shows the only asset of the Elkhorn Valley bank, which failed last week, is the banking house. Complaints have been filed against President McGreevy, charging him with embezzlement, and against Cashier Hagerty, charging him with receiving deposits after the bank became insolvent. The statement issued by the bank Nov. 18 showed loans of $35,000, but the bank examiner has been unable to find more than $25,000 in notes.

St. Louis, Nov. 29.—According to a report of State Bank Examiner Siebert, the shortage in the accounts of A. F. Miapagal, former cashier of the St. Charles Savings bank, is $78,161. It was announced to day the directors of the bank had deposited with a trust company in St. Louis $50,000 to secure depositors against loss.

FAMILY TRAGEDY.

Ashland, Ky., Nov. 29.—The murder of a whole family by a drunken husband and father is reported from near Shelby, Pike county, Kentucky. Enoch Sloan, a farmer, went home from Shelby in a drunken condition and shot and killed his wife and four children and then shot himself dead.

CONFERENCE CALLED.

Havana, Nov. 29.—President Palma has called a conference of leaders among the members of congress to meet to-morrow to discuss the sanitary and other important legislation.

WAR AT ZIEGLER

Constant Firing was Engaged in at the Mines Monday Night More Troops Arrive.

Benton, Nov. 29.—There was constant firing at Ziegler last night, which was almost like that of a battle. No less than 500 shots were fired into Ziegler from ambush. The shots came from every direction, but were aimed too high to do any damage. Two gatling guns on top of the office building and coal tipple at Ziegler answered the fire, but it is not known if any one was hit.

Carbondale, Nov. 29.—A company of the Fourth Infantry reached Ziegler to day. While martial law has not been declared at Ziegler the situation closely approaches it. No one not properly vouched for can enter town.

THE W. C. T. U.

Philadelphia, Nov. 29.—The thirty-first annual convention of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union began here to day and will continue during the remainder of the week. Five hundred delegates, representing over 300,000 members, from every state and territory, are in attendance. The chief feature of to day's program was the annual address of Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens, president of the organization.

The afternoon session of the W. C. T. U. was devoted principally to reading of reports and other routine business. Mrs. Susanna M. D. Fry, of Illinois, corresponding secretary, reported that during the year 272 new unions were organized and 9,415 members secured for the national organization in addition to 2,141 loyal temperance legion members. Twenty states were added by the Frances E. Willard memorial fund, the sum distributed being $1,065. For organization purposes $3,663 was spent. Mrs. Helen Morton Braker, of Illinois, national treasurer, reported total receipts, $58,215; expenditures, $55,951; balance in treasury, $3,264.

WAS MURDERED.

Sun Dance, Wyo., Nov. 29.—The mystery of the disappearance of James Garrett, a prominent ranchman, Oct. 19, has been cleared up by the confession of Willie Erickson, a 19 years old boy. Erickson confesses that on Oct. 19, while Garrett was driving off a calf belonging to Erickson he met by Otto Erickson, who commanded Otto to release the calf. Garrett knocked Otto from his horse and attempted to shoot him with a rifle. The boy was too quick and shot Garrett three times. Garrett fell from his horse, still alive, and Erickson dragged him into the bushes and there cut his throat with a knife, despite his appeals for mercy. Later in the day Otto returned to the body and tying a rope to the feet dragged it to a new hiding place. Two days later Willie and Otto packed the body on a horse and moved it four miles, depositing it where it was found by a searching party.

VIOLENT DEMONSTRATION.

Paris, Nov. 29.—There was a violent student demonstration to day in connection with alleged insults to the memory of Joan of Arc recently at the Lyce Concorde by the professor of history. A crowd of 300 students made bonfires of copies of Socialist newspapers and engaged in a demonstration before being charged by a detachment of police. A lively scuffle followed, during which a dozen were arrested, including that of a girl student and son of a former prefect of police.

INDUSTRIAL PEACE TALK

THE ASSOCIATION NOW IN SESSION.

Delegates Speak of the Evils of Labor Unions and Walking Delegates—Eight Hour Movement a Menace.

New York, Nov. 29.—President VanCleave, of St. Louis, addressed the convention of the Industrial association to day. He first explained the plan and scope of the association, which, he said, stands for industrial peace and the enforcement of law. Existing conditions, he declared to be intolerable and dangerous. "Men you employ," said he, "are serving walking delegate and shop stewards and not you. Walking delegates and shop stewards employ whom they please without consulting you. It is up to you to destroy the boycott. Crime follows labor union wherever it secures a foothold."

VanCleave said $17,000,000 was paid into the treasuries of labor unions every year and that the largest part of this money was used to spread socialistic doctrines throughout the country. VanCleave urged the delegates to organize by crafts and stand together. By this means, he said, industrial peace could be secured within a year. He declared the employer who advertises in union newspapers or buys goods bearing the union label, by doing so, is contributing to campaign funds of the enemy and is therefore false to his fellows.

C. W. Post, of Battle Creek, Mich., told of an industrial war in his own city, which, he said, had been settled in the right way. "Industrial Peace" was the subject of his address. He said that industrial peace now reigns in Battle Creek and that the citizens of that city are ready to guarantee freedom from strikes, lockouts and labor warfare to manufacturers desiring to locate where they will be free from disturbance and the general warfare of labor unions.

"Aims of the Citizens' Alliance" was the subject of the paper read by J. C. Craig, president of the State Citizens' Alliance of Colorado. Craig said the Citizens' Alliance was the outgrowth of a desire upon the part of the public for industrial peace and steady employment of labor, to the end that industry might not be disturbed. The purpose of the Citizens' Alliance was not to antagonize unions or to destroy union, but only to resist the unions in so far as their methods are oppressive, unreasonable or unlawful. Craig defended the attitude of the Citizens' Alliance in Colorado and declared the deportation of miners from the state was justified by circumstances. "The general sentiment of that community in which rich mine owners, bankers, capitalists and wealthy merchants form an insignificant item numerically, fully sustains Governor Peabody," said Craig. "It was an unusual situation and required unusual treatment."

"Francis C. Numanmacher spoke of the 'Liberty of the Press.' He said in part: 'By the inauguration of a strike for the eight-hour day on Jan. 1, 1906, the Typographical union would paralyze the entire printing industry from one end of the country to the other, for they are now engaged in organizing all the smaller cities as rapidly as it can be done, so there will be no non-union printers to take their places in the larger cities. It's up to you to make it sure that the union will not triumph in this matter. The United Typothetae, to a man, will fight it to the end, but unaided by their customers it will cost some of them their fortunes. Let the union get the eight-hour day and you know what will happen in other lines of industry.'"

ADJOURNMENT WAS TAKEN UNTIL TO-MORROW.

WEDDING PARTY KILLED.

Belgrade, Servia, Nov. 29.—A wedding party near Monastir, Macedonia, has been attacked and slaughtered by Greek bandits, according to a telegram received at the foreign office. Thirteen of the party were killed and five wounded. The Greeks escaped to the mountains.

CHAMPION STEER.

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Clear Lake Jute II, an Aberdeen Angus, owned by the Minnesota experimental station at St. Anthony Park, Minn., was declared grand champion steer of the International Livestock exposition to day. He was declared yearlings and all calf classes in Short-horn, Hereford, Angus, Galloway and all grades and crosses. Swenson Brothers of Stanforth, Texas, won the grand championship for a car load of twenty head of feeding steers and Claude Kramback, of Marni, Iowa, was a similar honor with a car load of fifteen grain fed steers.

CASE OF SUICIDE.

Cincinnati, Nov. 29.—Coroner Weaver to day rendered a verdict in the case of C. A. Parker, vice president of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton and Perre Marquette railroad, who died here suddenly Nov. 19, finding that death was caused by suicide with prussic acid.

AT THE CAPITAL

President Arrives Home from St. Louis—An Important Decision Rendered.

Washington, Nov. 29.—President Roosevelt arrived here at 7:02 a. m. from St. Louis. Several hundred people were gathered at the Pennsylvania railroad station and greeted the president with cheers. The party immediately entered a carriage and was driven rapidly to the white house. An opinion was rendered by Attorney General Moody to day holding that guessing contests which have been conducted by many newspapers and magazines are in effect lotteries. The opinion is most sweeping in character and the postmaster general will hereafter be guided by it and will put it into effect as soon as practicable.

Senator Burrows, chairman of the committee on privileges and elections, has issued subpoenas for twenty witnesses in the Senator Smoot investigation and has fixed Dec. 12 as the date for their appearance before the committee. Nearly all of these witnesses are in Utah.

The sub-committee of the house committee on appropriations to day began consideration of the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, with the view of having it ready to report to congress soon after it convenes.

News has reached here that a calculation made on the basis of customs receipts for the ports of Puerto Cabello and La Guaira during the past year, indicates American claimants will not receive their award from the Venezuelan government for ten or eleven years, according to the present method of payment.

Civil Engineer George Mackay has been appointed engineer of the new naval training station at Lake Bluff, Ill.

Minister Squires, the American minister to Cuba, in a cablegram received at the state department to day, reports the Cuban government has expressed its willingness to do all it can to improve the sanitary conditions at Santiago and other places in Cuba, but that President Palma must await an appropriation by congress for this purpose before headway can be made.

CLING TO FIREMEN

Many Children Saved from a Burning New York Tenement House.

New York, Nov. 29.—With children held under their arms, clinging around their necks or hanging to their shoulders, firemen to day carried forty screaming youngsters from a tenement building in Ninth avenue. At the same time thirty adults followed the rescuers down fire escapes. Mrs. W. A. Cunningham, an aged woman living on the second floor, who had been bedridden for two weeks from paralysis, arose and climbed into the street unaided. The fright of the moment seemed to have effected a cure and she hurried to a neighbor's house without a twinge of pain.

A LAKE GALE.

Alpena, Mich., Nov. 29.—A big gale has driven the steamer D. W. Blanchard and schooners Johnson and Keldhouse on North Point. The Blanchard was broken up and the Johnson is fast breaking to pieces and will be a total loss. The crews were rescued without loss of life by life savers.

ARRIVES AT CAPETOWN.

Capetown, Nov. 29.—The Dutch steamer Batavier, having on board the body of Paul Kruger, former president of the Transvaal republic, arrived here to day almost unnoticed. The remains will lie in state here and will leave for Pretoria Dec. 7.

DECORATED.

St. Louis, Nov. 29.—It was learned to day that Spenser Joseph Cannon was among those recently decorated by France. The rank conferred upon him, it was stated, was Chevalier of Legion of Honor, but it is understood his office precludes acceptance of the title.

REWARD OFFERED.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 29.—Governor Mickey to day offered a reward of $200 for the apprehension of the slayer of Lulu Johnson, who was shot and killed the night of Oct. 29 near Valentine, Neb. The girl was riding in a buggy at the time she was shot and her two male companions were wounded. A company of troops from Ft. Nodman was camped near the scene of the shooting and the coroner's inquest developed the fact that the bullet which caused Miss Johnson's death was fired from a regular army Krug-Jorgensen rifle.

DEATHS.

London, Nov. 29.—The earl of Harwick, Albert Edward Philip Yorke, under secretary of state for India, died suddenly to day. He had been in poor health for some time.

INDICATIONS.

CORBETT IS VANQUISHED

GOES DOWN BEFORE BATTING NELSON

Ten Rounds of Desperate Fighting are Endured, Witnessed by an Immense Crowd of People—Report by Rounds.

San Francisco, Nov. 29.—In the greatest fight witnessed between little men in years, "Battling" Nelson, of Chicago, won from "Young Corbett," of Denver in ten rounds. From the top of the gong until Corbett's seconds threw up the sponge, Nelson was master of the situation at every stage of the game. His fighting was a revelation and the most brilliant witnessed in any ring here. For the last three rounds Corbett was helpless, but he wobbled around groggily and gamely until repeated calls from around the house to stop the fight caused Corbett's manager, Harry Tuttle, to enter the ring. The fight was over and a new man is in line to vanquish Champion Brit.

The pavilion was jammed to the danger point with fight enthusiasts, who fought San Francisco, Nov. 29.—Woodward's pavilion was jammed to the danger point to night with fight enthusiasts who fought their way into the auditorium to witness the battle between "Young Corbett" and "Battling Nelson." The interest displayed over the outcome was as great if not greater than in many events previously held which involved the world's championships. This feeling was reflected in the betting market, where notwithstanding the one-sidedness of the odds, speculation on the result was the heaviest of any contest since the Brit-Corbett battle nearly a year ago. While technically no championship title went with the winning end of to night's fight, the fact that the victor will meet Jimmy Brit in this city next month for the world's featherweight championship proved an incentive which greatly stimulated the efforts of the principals and impelled them to train to the limit. Corbett ruled a warm favorite at odds of 1 to 2. Later the betting switched to 10 to 7.

THE FIGHT BY ROUNDS.

Round one—Corbett walked coolly to the center. Nelson was first to move, missing left and right swings for the jaw. Corbett lunged out quickly with the right, but was short. Nelson nearly slipped to the floor in avoiding the blow. Corbett ducked a left swing and then chopped right to Nelson's face. Corbett rushed in viciously, but missed right and left for the body. Nelson shot his left lightly to the face and in the mix-up sent a right to Corbett's body. Corbett swung his right to head heavily and the bell found them in a fruitless mix-up.

Round two—Both missed lefts and went to close quarters, Nelson getting in his left lightly to Corbett's face and ducking a vicious right uppercut. Corbett rushed to clinch and sent in some vicious lightning. Nelson placed some good lefts on Corbett's body and a right to the jaw. After several exchanges Corbett hooked his right to the jaw and Nelson retaliated with a right to the face. Corbett tried straight lefts for the jaw. Corbett was clobbered slightly from the mouth as the gong sounded.

Round three—They exchanged lefts to the head. Corbett swung a vicious right to the head and Nelson retaliated with a left uppercut to the jaw. Nelson rushed Corbett to the ropes, landing left and right. Nelson sent straight right to the jaw and followed it with a left to the face. Nelson forced Corbett to a neutral corner, but the latter got clear and fought to the center at close quarters, Corbett landing several punches on the face. Corbett suddenly sent two terrific rights to Nelson's jaw and they mixed fiercely. Nelson forced Corbett around the ring, but received a straight right to the face. Corbett swung a fearful right to the face as the gong rang.

Round four—Nelson swung a right to the head and Corbett missed a fearful right uppercut for the jaw. They went to close quarters and Corbett missed two short arm swings for the jaw. Nelson forced Corbett against the ropes and then around the ring, landing almost at will on Corbett's head and face. The fought shoulder to shoulder, both missing fierce right and left uppercuts. The men exchanged fierce rights and lefts and when the bell rang Nelson was groggy.

Round five—Almost at the opening they went to close quarters, Nelson shoving Corbett around the ring with his head on Corbett's shoulders. Neither did much exposition in the mix; Nelson whipped a right to Corbett's jaw. Nelson forced Corbett against the ropes, but the latter upped with a right to the jaw that sent Nelson back. In the center of the ring Nelson sent a straight left to the face and as the bell sounded repeated the dose. Corbett's nose was bleeding slightly.

Round six—They went at once to close quarters and Corbett planted a vicious right on the body. Nelson continued to force Corbett about the ring and against the ropes, mostly with his head and shoulders; Corbett got in some good blows. Corbett received a straight right on the nose, but Corbett drove a telling right to the body. Nelson brought blood from Corbett's nose and mouth and landed several terrific left and right short arm blows. Corbett fought back wildly. Nelson kept after Corbett, landing almost at will. The gong sounded with Nelson landing straight lefts and rights to the face, bringing blood from Corbett's nose.

Round seven—Nelson resumed his shoving tactics and at close quarters staggered Corbett with three rights to the jaw. He followed it with a straight right to the face, forcing Corbett to give way. Another right found Corbett's mouth. Corbett got in a wicked right to the jaw, but Nelson gave two for one and planted left and right on Corbett's face. Corbett fought back hard, but was met with a right swing to the jaw and a straight left to the face. Nelson kept up the bombardment, finally nearly flooring Corbett with a right swing to the jaw. Nelson had Corbett groggy, forcing him against the ropes with the blood streaming from his mouth and nose and presenting a sorry spectacle. Corbett was weak and almost tottered to his corner when the gong sounded.

Round eight—They went to close quarters at the very outset. Nelson continued the rain of blows on Corbett's face and broke out bleeding afresh. Corbett kept in very close, missed several desperate swings and was forced into Nelson's corner. Nelson pegging away mercilessly at his face, Corbett drove a wicked right to Nelson's face, but the latter landed out a crushing right that caught Corbett on the jaw. Fighting was desperate. Corbett fought wildly, while Nelson made his blows tell, seldom waiting to land. Nelson upped Corbett viciously several times with his right and brought more blood from Corbett's face. Just before the gong sounded Corbett landed a right swing to Nelson's jaw.

Round nine—Corbett missed right and left for the jaw, but received two straight lefts and a right on the jaw that forced him back. In the mix Nelson drove his left to the face and a hard right to the body. Corbett missed two fearful left swings to the jaw. They mixed it and Nelson forced Corbett against the ropes. Corbett swung a fierce left to the jaw. Nelson forced Corbett against the ring, landing fearful right and left jolts at will. Corbett was helpless and could not protect himself. Nelson landed an avalanche of rights and lefts to the face and the gong saved Corbett from almost certain defeat. It looked as if he was motioning to his seconds to throw up the sponge.

Round ten—Nelson went after Corbett. Corbett hung to Nelson desperately, fighting back like a wild man. His swings were wild, however. Nelson again rushed Corbett to the ropes, landing at will with right and left on the face. Corbett was groggy and the crowd yelled "Stop it!" "Stop it!" Nelson went after Corbett, who could scarcely raise his hand. Corbett's seconds, seeing his helplessness and hopeless condition, threw up the sponge. Corbett was carried to his corner with blood streaming from his nostrils, mouth and ears, an utterly defeated pugilist. Nelson left the ring with scarcely a mark.

A BIG AWARD

Judgment for Over a Million Dollars Against the American Maltng Co.

New York, Nov. 29.—In the supreme court Justice Clarke to day awarded a judgment of $1,087,074 against Alexander M. Curtiss, of Buffalo, and in favor of Archibald A. Hutchinson and other stockholders of the American Maltng company. This judgment represents dividends said to have been declared and paid illegally and suit was brought against Curtiss individually, as a director of the company, under the stock corporation law, which makes every director of a corporation liable to the full amount of any dividend illegally declared. Hutchinson charged in his complaint that dividends had been paid out of the capital instead of out of net profits and Judge Clarke finds, this was true between July 15, 1898, and Oct. 15, 1899, except for one dividend declared in April, 1899. Judgment represents the total dividends declared and carries interest from dates of payment.

EIGHT HOUR LAW VOID

NEW YORK COURT'S DECISION

Reverses the Finding of the Lower Courts and Declares the Labor Law Unconstitutional

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 29.—By a decision to day the New York state court of appeals declared unconstitutional the labor law which prohibits a contractor from employing his men more than eight hours a day on city, county or state work. Since its enactment in 1887 this statute has been passed upon, but this is the first time the court of appeals has expressed its view flatly on the eight-hour provision.

The decision was in an action brought by Harry Cossey to compel payment by the city of New York of $28,215 for six sewers manufactured for the street cleaning department. The payment was refused on the ground he had violated the terms of his contract in employing his men over eight hours a day. Cossey did not deny this, but claimed the law was unconstitutional. The court of appeals reverses the lower courts and grants appellant's application. Judges O'Brien, Martin and Vann hold the law is unconstitutional in that it deprives an individual of property without due process of law. Chief Justice Cullen, with Judge Warner concurring, made a decision of precedent. In his conclusion the chief justice says:

"I fear that the array of outrages of labor organizations or of some of their members have not only excited just indignation, but at times have frightened courts into plain legal inconsequence and into the enunciation of doctrines which, if asserted in litigation arising under any other subject than labor legislation would meet with scant courtesy or consideration."

Democrats of Colorado will Test the Jurisdiction of the State Court.

Denver, Nov. 29.—Representing the Democratic state central committee, Attorney Richardson left this city for St. Louis, where he will apply to Federal Judge Thayer for writs of habeas corpus for Thomas Shephardson, Peter Miller and Michael Dow, prisoners in the Denver county jail under sentence for contempt of the court of this state in disregarding its orders at the late election. ## LAND FRAUDS.

Progress of the Trial at Portland, Ore.—Evidence of Conspiracy.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 29.—By detail after detail, the government during to day's session of the trial and fraud cases trial established circumstances of alleged conspiracy. Point after point was adduced to show the relations between Pater and Mrs. Watson. This came out in the testimony of Wells Abell, United States commissioner of Pineville, who said he saw Mrs. Watson sign the name of William J. Pater in the presence of S. A. D. Pater, and the testimony of W. A. Richards, commissioner of the general land office, who arrived from Washington, D. C., last night, that he saw them together with United States Senator Mitchell in Washington on the occasion of an alleged call to see about expediting consideration of the alleged fraudulent claims and rushing patents thereto. If the plans of the government materialize its case will rest to-morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Wood entertained a few of their immediate relatives and near neighbors at Thanksgiving dinner last week at their country home near Pishah. A beautiful and most beautifully laid table was prepared for the guests, tastefully decorated with carnations, and exquisite Japanese ghyssanthemums. The perfectly prepared turkey and all the other necessities of a good dinner tended to sharpen the appetites of the guests, who heartily enjoyed the good things set before them by their host and hostess.

The only thing to mar the perfect pleasure of the occasion was the news of the illness of Mrs. Gates Strawn.

RODE DOWN COURT HOUSE STEPS.

Four members of the freshman class of the high school performed a foolhardy feat yesterday while on their way from school, which nearly resulted seriously for one of them. They desired to emulate the feat of Kilpatrick, of "ride for life" fame, and chose the court house steps as the scene of their performance. Three successfully made the descent of the steps on their wheels, but the third was thrown by a pedal of the wheel striking a step, and was precipitated to the stones below, fortunately without injury. He immediately tried the trick again, this time successfully. Those who accomplished the feat were Lloyd Vasconcellos, Edgar Austin, Max Mayfield, and Archie Vasconcellos.

A very wise man once said that when he began to feel too important he got a map of the universe and tried to find himself on it.

The man who wishes to buy an article, for less than the reasonable cost of production is as bad as he who seeks to sell it at an unreasonable profit.

Recent large conflagrations in the business sections of several large cities have been the means of booming metal office furniture. Some desks and racks of metal, which underwent a severe experience at the Baltimore fire, were found to be practically unimpaired after the fiery visitation but also to have preserved their contents.

A census of India just taken under the auspices of the British government shows that in 1901 the 2,554,612 square miles of the Indian empire had a population of 117,459,193. Of these the Christians number 2,925,241, of whom 2,644,313 are natives. Of these latter two-fifths are Roman Catholics. In 1872 the Christians numbered 1,500,000, of whom 1,248,283 were natives. So the growth of Christianity is far more rapid than that of the general population.

The aggregate annual letter and newspaper mail of the world amounts to 32,500,000,000 pieces, of which 8,500,000,000 go through the United States mails. We have 75,000 post-offices and 500,000 miles of postal routes. The service costs over $150,000,000 a year. But for $22,000,000 spent in the establishing of rural free delivery, which now serves one-seventh of the population of the United States, the postoffice would be self-sustaining.

Forty cents is the price that the 15,000 postal clerks now employed by Uncle Sam are paying to insure the government they will not steal any of the valuable registered letters or other mail matter they handle each year. The American Surety company made a bid for the bonding and made the low rate of forty cents a year for the $1,000 bond. There are about 15,000 men in the service and they must all have their bonds approved before Dec. 1. This is honesty guaranteed for forty cents.

THINGS ABOUT THE EMPEROR OF JAPAN.

An interesting study of the emperor of Japan, his habits and characteristics is contributed to the November World's Work by Durham White Stephens, counselor of the Japanese legation at Washington, and lately appointed by the mikado to be adviser to the emperor of Korea. He says:

"It is not easy to form an accurate estimate, from a prosaic western standpoint, of the reasons for the romantic domination of that personality in Japanese affairs to day, however patent may be the effects of the influence it has exercised upon the progress of Japan in the past. One difficulty, and not the least, arises from the fact that, in Japan, there is no exploitation or advertisement of the sovereign's personality along the lines which the modern newspaper has made familiar even in the most conservative western communities.

"But gossip concerning their ruler, even that seemingly harmless gossip about personal habits and the like, which apparently affords pleasure to the loyal subjects of other monarchs, is taboo in Japan. This is not the result of laws restricting liberty of speech, but of mental attitude common to all classes, plainly indicative of repugnance to the familiar discussion of a personality which is to them, in fact as well as in theory, the fountainhead of all that has made the nation great and prosperous.

"To sagacity of this high order is united a capacity for hard work and the habit of devoting close personal attention to public business. As one Japanese writer says: 'His majesty makes his appearance in his place of official business at 8 a. m., ready to attend to affairs of state, and he will sometimes continue at work till midnight.' His ministers always have ready access to his presence at all hours and I have the highest authority for the statement that the attention he gives to important matters is of no perfunctory nature, but that, on the contrary, the imperial sanction of any measure implies a careful examination of the details as well as approval of the principles involved.

"The emperor has always manifested a deep interest in military affairs. In times of peace he shows this by participation in military reviews and maneuvers and in the graduation ceremonies of military and naval colleges, and by his indefatigable personal concern at all times in the success of the policy which has brought Japan's military and naval establishments to their present efficiency."

MEETING OF PARTY CHIEFS

M. F. Dunlap and Judge O. P. Thompson Attended Democratic Conference in Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—M. F. Dunlap, leader of the Hearst forces in Illinois during the anti-convention campaign, and Judge Owen P. Thompson, of Jacksonville, were at the Sherman house Monday consulting with several Chicago and down state Democrats regarding the reorganization of the party in Illinois. The meeting was informal and is said to have been preparatory to a larger gathering which will be held later for the movement. Mr. Dunlap was treasurer of the Democratic national committee during the last Bryan campaign and has been looked upon as one of the Nebraska's staunchest friends in this state.

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK MARKET.

Kansas City, Nov. 28.—Much to the surprise of everybody here the cattle receipts last week footed up 60,000, about the same as the week before. The proportion of stockers and feeders was large, but the demand from the country was good and 600 car loads were taken out. Country buyers realize that there won't be many more weeks of liberal receipts from the range country, that the first severe storm, which is past due now, will shut off the supply from this origin. There was a good run of 16,000 head to day, and the total for the week should nearly reach 60,000 again this week. The fine open weather is responsible for the way the receipts hold up, and this is also a source of congratulation for cattle feeders, allowing them to obtain maximum results.

This table gives the top prices for stockers and feeders each day last week, and same days last year:

	1904.	1903.
Monday	$3.50	$4.00
Tuesday	3.75	3.65
Wednesday	3.50	3.75
Thursday, holiday	.....	.....
Friday	3.35	4.10
Saturday	2.95	3.25

FEEDERS.

	1904.	1903.
Monday	$3.65	$3.45
Tuesday	4.25	3.75
Wednesday	4.00	3.90
Thursday, holiday	.....	.....
Friday	3.25	3.50
Saturday	.....	3.05

Prices last week were called steady to the lower than previous week, but most sales of feeders were within the range of $2.00 to $2.75, and stockers, $2.50 to $2.75.

TO CONCILIATE.

Rome, Nov. 28.—There is much comment here upon the fact that Monsignor Maffi, archbishop of Pisa, who was received last week by King Victor Emmanuel at his country residence, has been called to Rome and had a long conference with the pope to day. In well informed circles this incident is regarded as another indication of the adoption by his holiness of the policy of conciliation between the church and state.

TACT OF GENERAL PLUMER.

"General Plumer is noted for his tact in dealing with colonial troops," says T. P. O'Connor, "and recently I heard of an incident during the Boer war in which this quality was severely tested.

"One day in camp a particularly 'tough proposition' of an Australian, newly sent up from the base, got hold of some liquor and speedily became mad drunk. Having and roaring about the camp, the Australian came upon General Plumer standing spick and span at the door of his tent and, uttering some ribald abuse, rushed at the general and struck him a heavy blow on the chest before any one could interfere.

"I need hardly say that such an offense was punishable by death, but General Plumer merely said to the onlookers who rushed up:

"Oh, take him away. He's drunk and doesn't know what he is doing." "And that was all the notice the general took of the affair. But the delinquent's comrades were not so lenient."

Physicians in France.

If the French republic should ever be sick it will not be for want of doctors to look after its health. About one-third of the chamber of deputies and half the senate are composed of practitioners of the healing art. The various ministries have plenty of physicians. The recent appointment of Dr. Gastinel to the ministry of public instruction brings their number up to sixty. The ministry of the interior has no fewer than four physicians. The ministry of public instruction has two, the ministry of foreign affairs has four, the ministry of finance has six and the ministry of public works seven. But the record is held by the department of posts and telegraphs, for Mr. Berard, the under-secretary, has at the disposal of his department no fewer than twenty-seven male doctors, two surgeons and five women doctors.

What Russian Authors Earned.

It is the custom for Russian writers of established reputation to sell their entire copyrights to the publishers more frequently than English authors do. Shortly before his death Turgeneff disposed of the copyright of all his works to a publisher for $9,000. The different sums for which the productions of some of the best known Russian authors of the old school have been sold are given as follows by the informant: Those of Gogol were disposed of for $6,000, Pushkin's and Gontcharoff's each realized about $3,500, while Kryloff's fables brought about $1,400, and the entire copyrights of many well known writers have been sold for much smaller sums than that.—Bystander.

GOOD PLACE TO TRADE

Many Ladies From Springfield, Bloomington, Pittsfield and Other Places Do Their Shopping in This City.

A fact that is probably not generally known is that quite a number of ladies from Springfield, and a few from Bloomington do most of their shopping in this city. A number of such shoppers while awaiting their trains at the junction recently, were asked by a stranger what their reasons were for coming so far and to a smaller town, to do their shopping. Their answers showed the different considerations which appeal to different persons as reasons why they should prefer to trade here.

A Springfield lady remarked that in this city she could do so much better in every way than in Springfield. Another said that there was so much greater variety of styles to select from, and a Bloomington lady suggested that in this city the proprietors and clerks were always so willing to show the goods, which is not so universally the case elsewhere. Many other good reasons for the preeminence of this city as a shopping centre were also given.

There must be good and sufficient reasons for the shoppers coming to Jacksonville from all over this immediate section of the state. For they do come from Pittsfield, Beards-town, Havana, Bloomington, Springfield, New Berlin, Lowder, Waverly, Carrollton, White Hall, Roddhouse, Winchester and nearer towns, many of them as near or nearer to larger cities than to this. The large and up-to-date stocks, reasonable prices and courteous treatment offered by the local merchants would indeed be difficult to rival in a city of anywhere near the size of Jacksonville. All these things have their effect with the buyers, and they naturally drift toward the trade centres. Hence the large share of the patronage of central Illinois enjoyed by Jacksonville merchants.

Our annual souvenir sale of holiday handkerchiefs begins to-day and a pretty souvenir will be presented each lady visitor. O. K. Store.

MASQUERADE BALL.

The M. P. L. lodge No. 269 gave a masquerade ball last evening at the Odell hall. A large number of people were present and the evening was pleasantly spent in dancing. The ball commenced early and lasted until about midnight.

Miss Jeanette Baptist was voted to be the finest costumed lady and received a handsome hand bag from the well known Frank's dry goods store. A pair of gloves was awarded to Dennis Kennedy for being the most comically costumed gentleman, by S. S. Knoles. Miss Margaret Ranan was awarded a box of candy by J. R. Phillips for being the most comically costumed lady on the floor. The oldest gentleman dancer was W. A. Graham, who received a pair of cuff buttons presented by the M. P. L. team No. 269. The oldest lady dancer was Mrs. James Smith, who was presented with a dollar package of sugar by E. C. Lambert.

"George Bever, Jr., and Miss Lena Louisa Swettart were married Wednesday evening at the Baptist parsonage by J. D. Vannoy. They were accompanied by Miss Effie Bever, sister of the groom, and Miss Elma Rogers. After the ceremony they went to their furnished home on North 18th street. The bride is a young lady well liked by a large circle of friends because of her many attractive characteristics, while the groom is an industrious, successful young man to whom good fortune should come because of his own efforts. Good wishes of many friends go with them."

RED MEN FEAST.

Delaware Tribe No. 78, I. O. R. M., held a "coon and possum banquet" last evening after their regular meeting, to which a large number of friends of the order were invited. A jolly good time was enjoyed by all who had the pleasure of participating, and the occasion will be long remembered. At the conclusion of the regular meeting, the doors to the dining room were thrown open, and the noble Red Men and their guests, to the number of seventy-five, seated themselves at the tables, laden with a savory feast, such as is seldom seen. The menu comprised five "coons and three possums, the result of last week's hunt, prepared in faultless style by W. S. Talbot, dressing, bread and butter, apple sauce and coffee. At the conclusion of the big feast, the braves and their pale face guests smoked their calumets and indulged in innocent amusements until a late hour.

At the business meeting the names of a number of pale faces were submitted for membership. These will be acted upon soon, and it is expected that in two weeks a class of twenty will be received into the tribe.

Great Chief of Records Will Bladen, of East St. Louis, expected to be present at the feast, but at the last moment found that he would be unable to attend.

PRIEST ASKS FUNDS.

RAILROAD NEWS NOTES

Middle Division of Wabash Divided Into Two Parts—Suit Against Alton—Local Items of Interest.

A new division on the Wabash railroad will be established by the first of December which will have headquarters in Springfield and which will be known as the Springfield division. This new division will be taken from the Decatur-Quincy and Hannibal and Keokuk division which has been called the middle division and which represented 210 miles.

The placing of the Springfield division offices in Springfield will bring new officers to that city. Mr. James Stumpf, who has been superintendent of the terminal station of the Wabash at the world's fair, an office created especially for the fair, will have charge of the Springfield division with headquarters in that city. It is probable that the office at St. Louis will be abolished at the close of the fair. Mr. Lew W. Karnes, of Decatur, will be trainmaster and will have charge of a number of clerks among them three dispatchers. They may also organize a road department for the division. The new officers will arrive in Springfield by Sunday next. The reason for the establishment of the new division is the amount of business which has made a cutting into the old middle division necessary.

Frank Gilcrest, a young man of Pleasant Plains, has brought suit against the Chicago & Alton road for $30,000 damages which he claims he suffered by the inhuman treatment of a brakeman on that road. It is alleged that last September Gilcrest and some friends boarded a way freight for Bloomington and that when Minier was reached the brakeman demanded a certain sum from Gilcrest, declaring he would put him off if the money was not forthcoming. Gilcrest concluded to get off the train, although it was going about twenty miles an hour, and when starting to climb down the side ladder from the top of the car the brakeman stepped on his fingers, causing him to let go his hold and falling under the train, where both legs were cut off.

C. P. Bemis, of the C. & A., passed through the city yesterday on train No. 24.

Charles Freitag shipped a car load of hogs and one of sheep to St. Louis Tuesday via the Alton on train No. 87.

H. J. Foale, signal engineer for the Wabash, was in the city yesterday inspecting the interlocking plant.

Lewis Selby, cashier for the C. P. & St. L., is laid off on account of a severe cold.

The C. P. & St. L. passenger train No. 38 was delayed about fifteen minutes yesterday on account of the Wabash passenger No. 22 being late.

Conductor Flaherty, of the Burlington train No. 48 laid off Tuesday and his place was filled by Conductor Cross of the main line.

C. H. Walker, baggage agent for the Burlington, who was injured a few days ago, is able to be out again and will be at work in a few days.

PLEASANT EVENT

Citizens Meet Officials of the C. P. & St. L. Road.

Monday evening the citizens of this city were invited to the Dunlap house to meet J. P. Ramsey, general manager of the C. P. & St. L. road, and Douglas Stewart, superintendent of motive power. Both gentlemen were on hand and were greeted by a large number of representative business men of the city and a pleasant time was enjoyed socially, both the railroad men proving very affable and agreeable gentlemen to meet. All conversed freely with them and found the occasion decidedly agreeable.

Ald. Vaughn then called the gathering to order and suggested that since they had met the visitors informally it would be pleasant to hear from them in some remarks addressed to the whole assembly.

Mr. Ramsey first responded in some very felicitous words, expressing the pleasure he felt in meeting the people of Jacksonville and he assured all present that it would be his constant endeavor to treat all in a spirit of perfect fairness and good feeling. The road prospered when the people do well, and each will do better with the hearty co-operation of both. Mistakes would take place, but he would do his best to remedy every fault and respond promptly to all appeals, and he urged every one having a grievance to bring it up at once and not wait.

Remarks were made by Mr. Stewart, who told eloquently of his admiration for beautiful Jacksonville and its enterprising citizens and in glowing words he assured all that the prosperity and happiness of the people of this classic city would be his constant delight.

Brief addresses were made by Messrs S. W. Nichols, J. A. Ayers, J. D. Gouven, S. B. Stewart, C. W. Brown and L. O. Vaughn. All emphasized the fact that the C. P. & St. L. was a home road; that the men in the shops left thousands here monthly and it was a bonanza which deserved encouragement; that it was the duty of all to stand by the management of the road and do everything possible for its welfare and prosperity, as it was really the only one which could really be called in Jacksonville a home road.

Some time was then spent informally during which Mr. Ramsey said he hoped to keep in close touch with the heads of the Business Men's association and the Retail Merchants' association and at the same time he would never turn a deaf ear to the communication of any individual no matter how humble.

The whole affair was very pleasant and augurs well for the relations which should exist between the city and the corporation.

OHIO'S VOTE.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 23.—The official vote of Ohio at the recent election, completed to night, shows 25,421 plurality for Roosevelt.

The O. K. Store's 14th annual handkerchief sale begins today. We will present each lady visitor with a pretty souvenir.

Registered a Second Time.

A few days ago there arrived in Philadelphia from Washington a man whom we will call J. Henry Brown. He went to a hotel, engaged a room, registered and after having lunched went out again, evidently on a sightseeing trip. Late in the afternoon he returned and asked the clerk of the hotel for a pen with which to register.

"Why, you registered once," said the clerk, "and it isn't necessary for you to do so again."

"Oh, I know I registered," replied the Washington man in a bland tone, "but I have just been out and got married, and I want to register as 'Mr. and Mrs.'—Philadelphia Press.

There Was Only One.

A polite and dignified young man made application for citizenship papers to a clerk in the United States court in New York. "Your name, please," said the clerk. "Jacques Marie Joseph Maurice des Rosieris de Balaine," was the reply. "Where are they?" asked the clerk. "I am he," answered the polite young man. "Well, what is your name?" "Jacques Marie Joseph Maurice des Rosieris de Balaine." "One at a time," said the clerk, getting out of patience. It finally dawned upon him that the polite applicant owned the entire lot, and Jacques Marie, etc., got his papers.

Strenuous.

There is no lack of excitement along the line of the Uganda (East Africa) railway. At Nairobi, one of the principal stations, the postmaster found a lion on his front stoop one morning. Several natives and more than one white officer along the road had been eaten by lions. On one occasion an engine could hardly make its way through miles of locusts on the track.
